

PALLISER REGIONAL SCHOOLS JURISDICTION PROFILE

Palliser Regional Schools is a rural school jurisdiction located in southern Alberta. The geographical area stretches from just south of Lethbridge to the Bow River south of Calgary. Palliser Centre houses the Central Office Administration, Maintenance and Transportation and is located in the City of Lethbridge. In addition, a satellite Maintenance Shop has been set up in the Town of Vulcan. The division offers full public education services to approximately 6300 students Preschool through Grade 12 in 39 schools, including 3 outreach programs, 1 alternative Low-German Mennonite program, 6 alternative Christian schools and 14 Hutterite colony schools. Five of Palliser's alternative Christian schools are located in the City of Calgary.

